

ANNUAL PREVAILING WAGE RATE SURVEY

PROCEDURE FOR REQUESTING A CORRECTION / RECALCULATION OF ANY WAGE RATE CONTAINED IN THE INITIAL DETERMINATIONS CORRECTED ON OCTOBER 29, 2009 FOR ESTABLISHING THE JANUARY 1, 2010 PREVAILING WAGE RATES

The Initial Determinations for 2010 may be viewed on the Equal Rights Division's website at: <http://dwd.wisconsin.gov/pwfnl/PwfnlList.asp>

The Equal Rights Division will accept a correction / recalculation request on the basis of evidence that:

- An employer did not receive a survey, or
- An employer properly mailed a survey form which the department did not receive, or
- The survey data previously submitted was erroneous.

A correction / recalculation will not be granted for the consideration of data that could have been submitted as a part of the annual survey but was not submitted on time.

All of the following procedures MUST be followed in requesting a recalculation:

- The request must be submitted with a brief written explanation of why you are requesting the correction / recalculation.
- When an employer is correcting previously submitted information, a copy of the previously submitted survey form should be sent with the incorrect information crossed out in RED ink and the corrected information written in RED ink. DO NOT RESUBMIT A NEW SURVEY FORM OR DISK.
- The correction / recalculation request and accompanying evidence MUST be received by this division no later than NOVEMBER 23, 2009. Requests received after this date are unlikely to be considered.
